POLICY

Definitions

Bullying occurs when someone, or a group of people, deliberately and repeatedly upset, harass, intimidate, threaten or hurt another person or damage their property, reputation or social acceptance. There is an imbalance of power in incidents of bullying, where the bully or bullies have more power than the victim due to their age, size, status or other reasons.

Bullying may be direct or indirect, physical or verbal, and includes cyberbullying. Bullying is not a one off disagreement between two or more people or a situation of mutual dislike. It is deliberate and happens often.

Bullying can be:

- 1· direct physical bullying – e.g. hitting, tripping, and pushing or damaging property.
- 2· direct verbal bullying – e.g. name calling, insults, homophobic or racist remarks, verbal abuse.
- 3· indirect bullying – e.g. spreading rumours, playing nasty jokes to embarrass and humiliate, mimicking, encouraging others to socially exclude a person and/or damaging a person's social reputation or social acceptance.

Cyberbullying is direct or indirect bullying behaviours using digital technology. For example via a mobile phone, tablets, computers, chat rooms, email, social media, etc. It can be verbal, written or include the use of images, videos and/or audio.

Mutual conflict involves an argument or disagreement between people with no imbalance of power. In incidents of mutual conflict, generally, both parties are upset and usually both want a resolution to the issue. Unresolved mutual conflict can develop into bullying if one of the parties targets the other repeatedly in retaliation.

Social rejection or dislike is not bullying unless it involves deliberate and repeated attempts to cause distress, exclude or create dislike by others.

Single-episode acts of harassment, nastiness or physical aggression are considered to be bullying. If someone is verbally abused or pushed on one occasion, they are not being bullied. Harassment, nastiness or physical aggression that is directed towards many different people is not the same as bullying. However, single episodes of harassment, nastiness or physical aggression are not acceptable behaviours at our school and will also be addressed restoratively by staff at Glen Huntly Primary School.

Many distressing behaviours may not constitute bullying even though they are unpleasant. Students who are involved in or who witness any distressing behaviours of concern are encouraged to report their concerns to school staff.

BULLYING PREVENTION

Glen Huntly Primary School has a number of programs and strategies in place to build a positive and inclusive school culture. We strive to foster a school culture that prevents bullying behaviour by modelling and encouraging behaviour that demonstrates acceptance, kindness, tolerance and respect.

Bullying prevention at Glen Huntly Primary School is proactive and is supported by research that indicates that a whole school, multifaceted restorative approach is the most effective way to prevent and address bullying. At our school:

- We have a positive school environment that provides safety, security and support for students and promotes positive relationships and wellbeing
- We strive to build strong partnerships between the school, families and the broader community which means all members work together to ensure the safety of students
- Teachers are encouraged to incorporate classroom management strategies that discourage bullying and promote positive behaviour through implementing our Restorative Practices Action Plan and to implement weekly Class Community Circle forums where students can communicate and resolve issues related to bullying
- Year level appropriate incursions and programs are planned for each year to raise awareness about bullying and its impacts. This includes, but not limited to, The Resilience Project, Real Schools, and Restorative Practices Action Plan.
- In the classroom, our social and emotional learning curriculum teaches students what constitutes bullying and how to respond to bullying behaviour assertively and appropriately. This promotes resilience, assertiveness, conflict resolution and problem solving.
- The Peer Support Program and the Peer Mediation program encourage positive relationships between students in different year levels. We seek to empower students to be confident communicators and to resolve conflict in a non-aggressive, respectful and constructive way.
- Students are encouraged to look out for each other and to talk to teachers and older peers about any bullying they have experienced or witnessed.

For further information about our engagement and wellbeing initiatives, please see our Student Wellbeing and Engagement policy and Inclusion and Diversity Policy.

INCIDENT RESPONSE

Reporting concerns to Glen Huntly Primary School

Bullying complaints will be taken seriously and responded to sensitively at our school.

Students who may be experiencing bullying behaviour, or students who have witnessed bullying behaviour, are encouraged to report their concerns to school staff as soon as possible.

In most circumstances, we encourage students to speak to their classroom teacher. However, students are welcome to discuss their concerns with any trusted member of staff including teachers, wellbeing staff, Assistant Principal or Principal.

Parents or carers who may develop concerns from incidents in which their child is involved, or has witnessed bullying behaviour at Glen Huntly Primary School should contact our Assistant Principal/Student Wellbeing Coordinator by phone on 9571 2931 or by email directed to glenhuntly.ps@edumail.vic.gov.au

Investigations

When notified of alleged bullying behaviour, school staff are required to:

1. record the details of the allegations in writing and place a copy in the student's file as well as
2. informing the Sub-School Coordinator, Assistant Principal and Principal in writing.

The Student Wellbeing Coordinator is responsible for investigating allegations of bullying in a timely and sensitive manner. To appropriately investigate an allegation of bullying, the Student Wellbeing Coordinator may:

- speak to the students involved in the allegations, including the victim/s, the alleged perpetrator/s and any witnesses to the incidents
- speak to the parents of the students involved
- speak to the teachers of the students involved
- take detailed notes of all discussions for future reference
- obtain written statements from all or any of the above.

All communications with the Student Wellbeing Coordinator in the course of investigating an allegation of bullying will be managed sensitively. Investigations will be completed as quickly as possible to allow for the behaviours to be addressed in a timely manner.

The objective of completing a thorough investigation into the circumstances of alleged bullying behaviour is to determine the nature of the conduct and the students involved. A thorough understanding of the alleged bullying will inform staff about how to most effectively implement an appropriate response to that behaviour.

Serious bullying, including serious cyberbullying, is a criminal offence and may be referred to Victoria Police. For more information, see: <https://www.justice.vic.gov.au/saynotobullying> - Brodie's Law

Responses to bullying behaviours

When Student Wellbeing Coordinator has sufficient information to understand the circumstances of the alleged bullying and the students involved, a number of strategies may be implemented to address the behaviour and support affected students in consultation with Student Wellbeing Team, teachers, SSS staff, Assistant Principal, Principal, etc.

There are a number of factors that will be considered when determining the most appropriate response to the behaviour. When making a decision about how to respond to bullying behaviour, Glen Huntly Primary School will consider:

- the age and maturity of the students involved
- the severity and frequency of the bullying and the impact it has had on the victim student · whether the perpetrator student or students have displayed similar behaviour before
- whether the bullying took place in a group or one-to-one context
- whether the perpetrator demonstrates insight or remorse for their behaviour · the alleged motive of the behaviour, including any element of provocation

The Classroom Teacher or the Student Wellbeing Coordinator may implement all, or some of the following responses to bullying behaviours:

- Offer counselling support to the victim student or students, including referral to the Student Wellbeing Coordinator or external services.
- Offer counselling support to the perpetrator student or students, including referral to the Student Wellbeing Coordinator or external services
- Offer counselling support to affected students, including witnesses and/or friends of the victim student, including referral to the Student Wellbeing Coordinator or external services. · Facilitate a restorative practice meeting with all or some of the students involved. The objective of restorative practice is to repair and restore relationships that have been damaged by bringing about a sense of remorse and restorative action on the part of the person who has bullied someone and forgiveness by the person who has been bullied.

- Facilitate a mediation between some or all of the students involved to help to encourage students to take responsibility for their behaviour and explore underlying reasons for conflict or grievance.
- Implement disciplinary consequences for the perpetrator students, which may include removal of privileges, detention, suspension and/or expulsion consistent with our Student Wellbeing and Engagement policy, the Ministerial Order on Suspensions and Expulsions and any other relevant Department policies
- Facilitate a Student Support Group meeting and/or Behaviour Support Plan for affected students.
- Prepare a Behavioural Management Plan restricting contact between victim and perpetrator students.
- Provide discussion and/or mentoring for different social and emotional learning competencies of the students involved, including connecting affected students with older Student Mentors, resilience programs, etc.
- Monitor the behaviour of the students involved for an appropriate time and take follow up action if necessary.
- Implement year group targeted strategies to reinforce positive behaviours. For example, using the Restorative Action Plan, implementing The Resilience Project curriculum and rewarding with House Points.

The Student Wellbeing Coordinator and the Classroom Teacher is responsible for maintaining up-to-date records of the investigation of and responses to bullying behaviour.

Glen Huntly Primary School understands the importance of monitoring the progress of students who have been involved in or affected by bullying behaviour. Our ability to effectively reduce and eliminate bullying behaviour is greatly affected by students reporting concerning behaviour as soon as possible, so that the responses implemented by Glen Huntly Primary School are timely and appropriate in the circumstances.
